THE DOLPHIN
MARINA AND RESTAURANT
HARPSWELL, MAINE

THE VIEW

Casco Bay as seen from the Dolphin Restaurant

The Dolphin, looking south and east from its vantage point on the western tip of South Harpswell, offers a unique view of Casco Bay. Three notable area landmarks can be seen from the restaurant. They are the World War II observation towers marking Land's End on Bailey's Island; Admiral Peary's home and Halfway Rock Lighthouse

ABOUT US...

Traveling 14 miles from Brunswick, along picturesque Harpswell Neck peninsula you find us located on the very tip of Basin Point in Pott's Harbor. Dolphin Marina and Restaurant has been a family owned and operated business for over 50 years. Established in 1966 by Malcolm and Jean Saxton, a continuing commitment to fresh and local products, along with dedication to a warm and welcoming atmosphere has long made the Dolphin a gathering place for locals and visitors traveling by land and sea.

Our marina offers seasonal and transient slips and moorings, fuel, launch service, boat storage and transport.
